Advocacy services

All customers have the right to appoint an advocate to act on their behalf.

Advocacy services may be able to assist in the management of care, establishing or reviewing agreements, negotiating fees and in presenting any complaints.

We respect your choice of advocate, and encourage all customers to use the services of an advocate in the event of a dispute.

For customers accessing aged care programs, please call the National Aged Care Advocacy Line on 1800 700 600.

Responsibility for funding and administration of disability advocacy is shared between the Commonwealth and state/territory governments.

A list is provided at www.afdo.org.au

How we respond

We take your views seriously and you can be assured you that your feedback will be addressed fairly and promptly by our committed team.

Complaints are acknowledged by management, and as a team we commit to:

- Investigate further if required, to fully understand the concerns highlighted
- Refer issues that may be best dealt with by others (such as police, ombudsman and/or aged care or disability regulators)
- Updating you as your complaint is addressed
- Ensuring your privacy and confidentiality is maintained as required under law
